

What the input processor computes for one scenario (closed form, milliseconds); ○ marks the true source, dots the masts

average evidence  $\bar{z}_c$

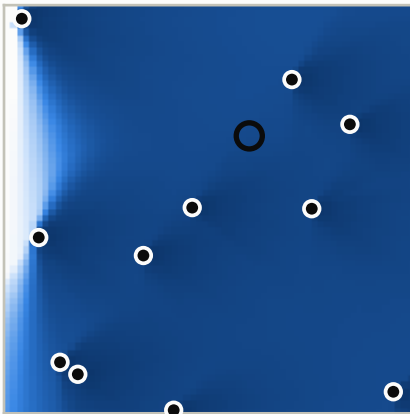

dark = readings point here

evidence variability  $v_c$

dark = fragile to wind error sensitivity  $\overline{\log b_c}$

dark = visible to this layout fit quality (from  $\bar{R}_c$ )

dark = readings well explained